Schedule

The conference brings together seasoned Bible teachers who are practically engaged in transforming culture through the power of the Word of God. This all day conference will explore the following topics and accomplish the following:

Followers of Jesus will learn how to biblically engage the British post truth culture with the Word of God.

The message of the Old Testament prophets to Israel and the nations will be studied and made relevant to our present day.

The case for the Messiahship of Jesus will be presented through the examination of key prophetic texts.

The Jewish commitment to Torah and tradition will be presented as a role model for Christian living in a hostile world.

Followers of Jesus will become better equipped to share the gospel in todays context.

Speakers

JESUS IN THE OLD TESTAMENT

Parts 1 and 2

Dr Michael Brown

Michael Brown (Ph.D. in Near Eastern Languages and Literature, New York University) is a Messianic Jew and a leading authority on the Old Testament Scriptures, especially how the prophets pointed to Jesus as the Messiah.

Dr Brown has served as a visiting or adjunct professor to numerous well-known seminaries, contributed various articles to scholarly publications, and is author of more than 30 books. He is a regular broadcaster and hosts an apologetics show on US television. He is widely considered the world's foremost Messianic Jewish apologist.

SALT AND LIGHT IN A POST-CHRISTIAN WORLD

Dr Darrell Bock

Darrell Bock (Ph.D., University of Aberdeen, Scotland) is a leading authority on the Gospel of Luke and Book of Acts.

Dr Bock is the Executive Director for Cultural Engagement at the Hendricks Center and Senior Research Professor of New Testament Studies at Dallas Theological Seminary. He has authored or edited over 40 books in theological and cultural areas, including many related to New Testament studies, Israel and reconciliation.

ISRAEL, THE JEWISH PEOPLE, AND THE TRUTH OF SCRIPTURE

Dr Mitch Glaser

Mitch Glaser (Ph.D. in Intercultural Studies, Fuller Theological Seminary) is a Messianic Jew who found Jesus as His Messiah in his teens. Mitch lives and works in New York City where he has a ministry to the Jewish people.

Dr Glaser is the President of Chosen People Ministries, New York. He speaks and writes widely on Jewish evangelism and Messianic Judaism. He is co-editor with Darrell Bock of five academic volumes published by Kregel Publications and has authored numerous books and articles. He broadcasts and speaks extensively.

CONNECTING WORLD VIEWS THROUGH MUSIC AND THE ARTS

Revd Tim Mercaldo

Revd Mercaldo holds a degree in Bible and Theology from Moody Bible Institute and is currently completing postgraduate studies in Apologetics. He is the Lead Pastor of Gateway Church, New York, and CEO of Gateway Community Outreach, a US charitable organisation which exists to inspire and impact the Greater New York area through arts, sports and educational programs and events. As a recording artist and instrumentalist (piano and cello) he has performed at various institutions and secular events within the community, nationally and internationally.

THE JEWISH PEOPLE AS A ROLE MODEL FOR FAITHFULNESS IN A FAITHLESS WORLD

Dr Calvin Smith

Calvin Smith (Ph.D. in Theology and History, University of Birmingham) teaches in the area of Evangelical social and political engagement, particularly within a British context.

Dr Smith is Principal of King's Evangelical Divinity School, a leading UK Evangelical Higher Education provider of online theological education. He is also Editor of the Evangelical Review of Theology and Politics. He speaks and publishes widely on Christian social, political and economic issues and engagement.
